

Andrew Fuller, Program Director, Housing and Human Needs
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Washington, D.C. Advocacy Office

After studying politics and philosophy in Cincinnati, Ohio, Andrew worked for various local, state and federal political campaigns before joining the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in 2014. He engages with government officials and agencies, with religious advocates and organizations, and with affinity stakeholders to advance legislation in line with the varying housing needs in our communities.